A WORLD CLASS PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM FOR DC --
WHAT WILL IT TAKE?

To achieve the improved public school system we all want will take creative collaboration and support by all parts of our city government and citizens. We are honored to have three of the key players in school policy and governance at our February 5 meeting in a constructive discussion of questions such as: What are the obstacles to progress? What is working? What are the models we can learn from? What is the policy agenda for the foreseeable future? And how can we, as citizens, help? This unique forum, open to all, should attract interest from other parts of the community. So come early, and bring your best questions.
